

Fast Track III Program for High School Volunteers

Furlough Days 2009 - 2010

The Fast Track plan is based on a Service Learning Model that incorporates classes, doing shelter housekeeping tasks, reflection journal writing and roundtable discussions about daily events. The plan would offer students a two day training program with three hours of involvement for two consecutive Fridays on the shelter site. The Fast Track III Program covers the two required classes that are required of all volunteers. Students would be asked to commit to five hours of service on each of the 15 remaining furlough days. Students would be requested to continue working as volunteers at the Hawaiian Humane Society when the furlough days are finished.

Day # 1 Plan –Friday, October 23, 2009, 9:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

- Getting acquainted
- General Volunteer Orientation class

- Journal writing in the classroom (includes two parts: what happened and how did you feel about what you experienced?)
- Shelter Chores including laundry, dog treats, newspaper preparation for cages.
