

Plants in Hawaii that may harm pets

(Unless noted in bold, all parts of the plants are harmful to pets)

Allamanda vine	Kawa or 'awa in Hawaii
Angel's Trumpet	Lilies such as those popular at Easter
Anthurium	Mushrooms
Azalea (Rhododendron species)	Nightshade, also called deadly nightshade and popolo including Apple of Sodom, Jerusalem cherry and Cockroach berry
Bee-still tree	Oleander, (all varieties including be-still tree), all parts
Black-eyed Susan (Abrus precatorius), also called rosary pea and bead vine, seeds	Pencil plant , sap
Bird of Paradise (Strelizia regirae), fruits and seeds	Periwinkle (vinca)
Caladium	Plumeria (frangipani) also called pua melia
Candlenut tree (kukui), especially sap	Philodendron (all varieties), small to monstera
Cassava (tapioca), leaves and roots	Poinsettia, leaves and flowers
Castor Bean (Ricinus communis) also called pa`aila and kamakou, seeds	Pokeberry and Coral berry
Cestrum ('alaaumoe). berries	Pothos (Scindapsus aureus)
Chinaberry ('inia), all parts but especially fruit	Red Sage (Lantana camara), especially leaves and unripe berries
Crown flower (milkweed family) also called pua kalaunu	Rhododendron
Crown of Thorns	Rhubarb, leaves
Cup of Gold and Silver Cup	Slipper flower, especially sap
Daffodil (Narcissus), bulbs	Star of Bethlehem or pua hoku
Dumbcane (Dieffenbachia)	Taro, when raw
Elephant Ear, also known as 'ape	Tulip, bulbs
Foxglove, leaves, seeds, juice and flowers	Umbrella Plant (Cyperus alternifolius)
Gloriosa Lily, especially roots	Wisteria, seeds, pods
Hawaiian Poppy (pua kala)	Yew, needles, bark and seeds
Hens-and-Chicks (Lantana)
Hydrangea, especially leaves and buds	June 2001
Ivy (many varieties), leaves and berries	Hawaiian Humane Society
Jerusalem Cherry
Jimson Weed (Datura stramonium) or thorn apple and kikania haole	